Almighty, Wise and Loving God,

you graciously impart to your church all the gifts we need to serve you, and you give us your Spirit to empower our use of these gifts. Yet, time and again, we try to do things in our own power, in our own way, and in our own time, and, of course, the inevitable happens. We become frustrated, we feel burdened and weary, we burn out.

Remind us once more of your ever-present invitation to rest in you, to abide in your love, to trust in your ways and to wait for you. Grace us with your Spirit that we might let go, and allow you to direct our paths. For the sake of Christ, and in His name we pray. Amen.

NOTE ON “MIDSUMMER” MUSIC

In Europe June 24th is celebrated as the saint's day of John the Baptist, also known as “Midsummer Day” because it occurs near the summer solstice. According to a tradition recorded by Sir James Frazer in The Golden Bough, the preceding night was believed to be a time when witches and other supernatural beings caused widespread mischief.

This is the setting of Shakespeare's play A Midsummer Night's Dream, and the famous Wedding March comes from the music Felix Mendelssohn composed for a production of the drama in 1843. As Franz Liszt later commented, “There was no one who could match Mendelssohn's ability to depict the rainbow haze and nacreous sheen of these tiny goblins, no one who could reproduce the vivid brilliance of a wedding celebration at court as well as he.” — Rudy Shackelford
